SW Gathering (Kin-Ball)
31 March 2018

NYP School of Health Sciences (Allied Health) Grand Homecoming 2018 marks a significant milestone in our history as we celebrate 26 years of Physiotherapy, Occupational Therapy, Diagnostic

On 31 March 2018, Diploma in Sport & Wellness Management (SW) organized its Alumni Gathering at the NYP Sports Hall. Close to 40 alumni participated in a new sport called Kin-Ball, followed by lunch, Radiography and Radiation Therapy education. This homecoming was momentous because of the transition of the four courses over to Singapore Institute of Technology (SIT). A festivity of merriment filled with laughter, joy reminiscing the good times with their batch mates over food and booth activities (Caricature, wire art, photo and airbrush tattoo) concluded the evening.

industry partner sharing and prize-giving. It was a time to bond and engage with alumni and share developments within NYP and SW. This event was made possible through the efforts of the Teaching Enterprise Project (TEP) team who organized the event for their alumni and gained invaluable industry information and expanded their industry networks.

SERVING WITH A HEART

Festive Celebrations & Games Day @ Pacific Activity Centre

A huge thank you to our alumni, Michelle Vong, Jacob Ng, Nicholas Fu, Mohd Syafa'at, Zoe Cai, Albert Ng and Sribalan for kickstarting the Alumni Group with the first event of the year! Ushering in the festivities with lots of games and food. It was a blast! The Games Day on 24th of April was the second event for the year with more alumni joining us. Knocking ping pong balls into cups using a lollipop, assembling figures out of memory using matchsticks and building the tallest marshmallow tower were some of the games the seniors had fun with at this event. Join us next time in putting a smile on these folks' faces!

HELLO FROM ALUMNI!

Hello! I'm Michelle Vong. I started volunteering in 2013 with NYP's Community Service Club and invested much time and effort in building long-term relationships with some of the seniors at the organization I volunteer at. When I was graduating from NYP, I didn't want to let go of the relationship.

Hello! I'm Jacob Ng. I am thrilled, knowing that our alma mater is supportive of our efforts, supporting us with the resources and platform to connect with other passionate volunteers. It also gives me a sense of achievement as I am able to share my experiences and harness the collective potential that we have as alumni of NYP. Full story here
