IN APPRECIATION...

NYP Alumni Appreciation & Networking Gathering 2018

NYP alumni who had contributed to school programmes and events including the Alumni Contribution Award 2018 recipients were invited back to the Alumni Appreciation & Networking Gathering on Friday, 21 September 2018. The event gave our alumni an opportunity to catch up with staff, lecturers and fellow alumni over dinner, mooncakes, trivia quiz and mesmerising performances by Soundcard Alumni: Michah Velonza, Marsha Adriana, Ch'ng Wan Xin, Pow Jia Qi, Muhd Ridhwan, Firdaus Bin Salleh and Harun. A special thanks to the singers for the night.

Thank you once again to all our alumni out there who give back to NYP in your own way. We hope more of you could join us at future gatherings.

Entrepreneurship Seminar
13 July 2018

On 13 July 2018, Alumni Relations Office organised the Entrepreneurship Seminar especially for NYP Alumni. At this event, students played friendly Badminton, Tchoukball, Touch Football, Volleyball and Water Polo matches against each other. Co-organised by Student Development and Alumni Relations Office, it was heartening to see 70 alumni returning to campus to participate in this annual sporting event. Though some of our alumni came from batches as far back as 2007, they were still physically fit and unbeatable. Our alumni teams finished with a clean sweep of all 5 events to maintain their overall champion win once again for the third year. Congratulations to Team Alumni!

NYP launched a new MakerSpaceNYP Residency Programme for alumni. We were also honoured to have two of our alumni entrepreneurs, Mr Poh Wenxiang (Diploma in Industrial Design, SDN, Class of 2005), Founder of 'Make Your Own' and Mr Liu Lung Hao (Diploma in Information Technology, SIT, Class of 2016), Co-Founder, Feezmodo Consulting, who shared their entrepreneurship journeys with us at the seminar. It was an exciting and informative session with a tour of MakerSpace rounding up the night.

SERVING WITH A HEART

Career Discovery Mentorship Networking Session with Young NTUC

A huge thank you to our alumni, Alexis Prakash, Raymond Chan, Wang Junhao, Chan Zhengjie, Isaac Khoo, Shawn Fong, & Jimmy Fu for volunteering as Career Guides to the students from the School of Engineering. This career mentorship programme, held on Wednesday, 23 May 2018 is a collaboration NYP has with Young NTUC. It was a fruitful evening with students meeting their potential mentors during the human library sessions and mentors addressing the students' concerns. If you are interested to be part of this journey, look out for our email the next time we call out for Career Guide Volunteers. You can make a difference in the lives of NYP students.

HELLO FROM ALUMNI!

Hello! I'm Annie Lim. I have always loved being around young children so I joined the pre-school industry as an early childhood educator. An encounter with a child with special needs ignited my passion to work in the field of special needs education so I went on to train as an Allied Educator with Ministry of Education. I now provide intervention support to students with mild special educational needs so that they can integrate well into the classrooms.

Hello! I'm Jasper Chan. My keen interest in Science started when I studied Chemistry and Physics in secondary school which led me to pursue Molecular Biotechnology in NYP. Upon graduation and after completing NS, I went on to teach Science in a primary school before venturing into business. I'm currently running Mosanco Pte Ltd, a company that creates, formulates and distributes products that enhance the quality of human health.
